Dear Lester,

I was taken aback by your suggestion that I might be recording our conversations. It seems that your ad hominem attacks know no bounds. As I have stated several times now, we are not recording conversations with you.

Though we would prefer to streamline the process and have only one attorney during meet-and-confer calls to be more cost-effective for our client, your behavior during these discussions, such as using derogatory terms like "fool" and "stupid" to refer to me, necessitates the presence of at least two attorneys on any call involving you. This measure ensures that we can accurately document statements made by you.

Best regards,

Michael Neustel

I am just now reading your declaration (Dkt. 176).

You have numerous long direct quotes.
